

Hymn and Psalm for Morning Prayer on 11th October 2026

Hymn

Jesus, remember me when you
come into your Kingdom.

Jesus, remember me when you
come into your Kingdom.

Repeated x2

Psalm 138, 141

1 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; ♦ before the gods will I sing praise to you.

2 I will bow down towards your holy temple and praise your name, because of your love and faithfulness; ♦ for you have glorified your name
and your word above all things.

3 In the day that I called to you, you answered me; ♦ you put new strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord, ♦ for they have heard the words of your mouth.

5 They shall sing of the ways of the Lord, ♦
that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 Though the Lord be high, he watches over the lowly; ♦ as for the proud, he regards them from afar.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
you will preserve me; ♦ you will stretch forth your hand against the
fury of my enemies;
your right hand will save me.

8 The Lord shall make good his purpose for me; ♦ your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever; forsake not the work of your hands.

Psalm 141

1 O Lord, I call to you; come to me quickly; ♦
hear my voice when I cry to you.

2 Let my prayer rise before you as incense, ♦
the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch before my mouth, O Lord, ♦ and guard the door of my lips;

4 Let not my heart incline to any evil thing; ♦ let me not be occupied in wickedness with evildoers,
nor taste the pleasures of their table.

5 Let the righteous smite me in friendly rebuke; but let not the oil of the unrighteous anoint my head; ♦ for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.

6 Let their rulers be overthrown in stony places; ♦ then they may know that my words are sweet.

7 As when a plough turns over the earth in furrows, ♦ let their bones be scattered at the mouth of the Pit.

8 But my eyes are turned to you, Lord God; ♦
in you I take refuge; do not leave me defenceless.

9 Protect me from the snare which they have laid for me ♦ and from the traps of the evildoers.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, ♦
while I pass by in safety.

11/10 Morning Prayer First Reading Isaiah 50.4–10

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher,
that I may know how to sustain
the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he awakens—
wakens my ear
to listen as those who are taught.
The Lord God has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backwards.
I gave my back to those who struck me,

and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me?

Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries?

Let them confront me.

It is the Lord God who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?

All of them will wear out like a garment;
the moth will eat them up.

Who among you fears the Lord
and obeys the voice of his servant,
who walks in darkness
and has no light,
yet trusts in the name of the Lord
and relies upon his God?

11/10 Morning Prayer Second Reading Luke 13.22–30

Jesus went through one town and village after another, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, ‘Lord, will only a few be saved?’ He said to them, ‘Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. When once the owner of the house has got up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, “Lord, open to us”, then in reply he will say to you, “I do not know where you come from.” Then you will begin to say, “We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.” But he will say, “I do not know where you come from; go away from me, all you evildoers!” There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrown out. Then people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God. Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last

11/10 Morning Prayer Collect

O God, forasmuch as without you
we cannot please you;
mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit
may in all things direct and rule our hearts;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen
